Jimmie Asher To Pass Along His Citizenship Award To '55 Winner

Jimmie Asher, Religious Education and Musical Director of the First Baptist Church will present the McCullin Achievement Award which he won in 1954, to the outstanding Cameron citizen of 1955. The award is made each year at the annual banquet of the Chamber of Commerce.

The award is made on the basis of the person adjudged as having rendered the most outstanding unselfish service to the community during the year.

Mrs. Mark Magers received the award for 1953 and Reverend John Solomon, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church was awarded the first of such awards for the year 1952.

Any club or organization in Cameron may present at least one candidate for the award. After the candidates have been submitted, the committee members from the Junior Chamber of Commerce, the Business and Professional Women's Club and the Chamber of Commerce will determined the winner only from those names submitted.

Bo Peeps

A GRATEFUL LADY dropped in to thank the management of the Herald for the classified ad which told her that her strayed "Christmas Present Kitty" had taken refuge at 1000 E. Ninth St.

Mrs. Kathryn Robbins had bought the registered Siamese Kitty for little Adelle Davis of Denton, her grand daughter whose mother is the former Louise Robbins (one of the Robbins twins of Cameron.

It may be slightly co-incidental that Kitty took up with the Milton Browns but coincidences don't stop there. In 1926 Henry Knipp, brother of Mrs. Robbin's built the present Brown mansion. Then to cap the climax the home was originally built FOR the Robbins family. It was their home for a number of years. Now they live six blocks away at 1805 N. Davis.

The Kitty was confused is all. It went home. Now it will be a HAPPY NEW YEAR present for little Adele.

Christmas Carols which emanated from a loud speaker in front of the Herald Office during Christmas week were recordings graciously loaned by CULPEPPER'S The speaker was muonted by DENNIS KUBECKA'S Radio & TV firm and all this was in behalf of the display placed in the window by Cameron Public Library Board. Mr and Mrs. Jack Slaughter loaned the record player.

The Dionne family is again in the news. It hasn't made the newspapers or radio but we have it that Papa Dionne is suing for divorce. Seems the suit is one of long standing.

On a trip during Christmas we found that my shirt was dirty. No spare was brought along. "Is there a Penney store here?" we asked a native. The lady addressed must have thought we were awfully cheap from the answer "No.....there is a FIVE AND DIME store down there though."

Papa Dionnes complaint, so we are advised, is that Mrs. Dionne is overbearing.

Whilst we were in New Gulf I climbed up on the world's largest Pill. It was a pile of hardened sulphur right fresh out of the ground. It measured, or would when completed, 1200 feet long by 200 feet wide by 50 feet high. The stuff comes out of pipes in molten state, it is red and when it cools off in about 20 minutes is yellow. The "Watch" house is built like an igloo out of sulphur. In wintry weather the attendant may turn a faucet and run a two inch layer in on the floor of the house and for about two hours it will keep the hut warm.

The wife and I want to thank all of our new friends in Cameron for the Christmas Cards. She takes care of our correspondence and now gets cards annually from at least one-third of the states, Alaska and Europe. Next year Cameron friends will be on her list. We've just got to settle down and pay our rent so we can stay put or the postage will break us.

A fellow in Temple asked me one Sunday, "What does Cameron have?" He meant, in the way of assets, like factories and so forth. Well, I thought there isn't a lot of assets that I could brag about one THE PEOPLE. I meant it, so help me, and now I'm on record. I've been all over these United States and foreign countries and have found good people everywhere I went but NOT IN ABUNDANCE like in Cameron.

Blue Crutch Day Kicks Off Lions Drive On Polio

Many Texas Lions Clubs kicked off the 1956 March of Dimes with a voluntary "Blue Crutch Day" on January 3, Ray Gayle, of Angelton, Chairman of Lions' Texas Council of District Governors, announced today.

Texas Lions conducted the tag day in many communities across the State, giving the small, lapel-size plastic blue crutches in exchange for contributions to the campaign fund in the fight against infantile paralysis, Mr. Gayle said.

"The Salk Vaccine has shown that it can prevent paralytic polio. However, only a small portion of the population has been vaccinated, and the program of caring for polio patients is by no means ended," the State Lions leader pointed out.

Polio isn't licked yet, and Texas Lions are proud to be a part of the 1956 campaign to continue the fight against this crippling disease."

Major General K. L. Berry, of Austin, State March of Dimes Chairman, said:

"We are indeed grateful for the support of the Lions of Texas in the 1956 March of Dimes. Lions have been in the forefront of the polio program for years, and their continued work in the fight against polio will help to insure ultimate victory over the disease.

The "Dollhouse" Church display in the window of the Cameron Herald has caused a great amount of comment but since many in the area have not seen it, due to the press of holiday activities the two windows will be kept intact until January 15.

As special encouragement for children from 7 to 14 to view the "Doll-house" Church at least two prizes have been arranged by the Herald entitled "What the READ the child submitting a report on the subject of the windows to the Herald entitled "Wha the READ MORE displays mean to me."

Cameron Minus 11 Percent Businesswise Rockdale Up 81 In Ten Year Recap

Each January business concerns in all parts of the United States receive from Dun & Bradstreet requests for their annual financial statements. This year the number of requests going out nation-wide will exceed three million, with over 4 going to Milam County businessmen.

The growth and the industrial development of Milam County is reflected in statistics just released by the credit reporting firm. Robert C. Cushman, District Manager at Houston which covers this area, says that this year there will be more requests for financial statements made of business concerns in Milam County than ever before.

The Milam County section of the current issue of the Dun & Bradstreet Reference Book contains listings of 413 local names comprising manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers. It does not include some of the service and "professional" businesses, such as barber and beauty shops, real estate and stock brokers. Thus the figure for businesses in Milam County would actually be higher than the 413 quoted above. In 1946, the number of listed names totaled only 381 - an indicated increase for this year of 8 percent.

During 1956, Dun & Bradstreet estimates they will be required to make about 150 changes in the listings of business enterprise in Milam County. These changes will result from adding the names of new businesses, and deleting the names of those who have discontinued; as well as accounting for changes in ownership, trade names and credit ratings.

Percentage wise the largest expansion in business growth in Milam County is shown in Rockdale area with Minerva a close second The number of Milam Co. business enterprises listed in the current issue of Dun & Bradstreet's Reference Book, compared to the 1946, just after World War II. clearly outlines the substantial business development.

Public Library Profits From Pleasure, Profit Gift Books

Twenty-six books were given to the Cameron Public Library by ladies attending a Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Harry Harraway, president of the Profit and Pleasure Club.

The Christmas wreath on the front door gave a hearty welcome to the guests as they entered the living room. Fifteen members and seven visitors opened the meeting by singing Christmas Carols.

Mrs. Harold Riley reviewed "The Gift" by Madeline Nuttall Mrs. Riley presented the story in a most interesting fashion and it was accepted by the members with appreciation. Mrs. Don Humble, program chairman for the day, presented perfume to Mrs. Riley.

An attractive snow scene on the coffee table made an appropriate setting for the gift books for the library. The books given included children's books as well as modern novels.

In the beautifully decorated dining room Mrs. Don Humble served fruit cake "Snowmen" and Mrs. W. T Whatley Jr. poured coffee

At an earlier meeting of the club Mrs Don Humble was hostess, and at that meeting Mrs. L. R. Thompson reviewed the book "The Scotswoman" by Ingler Fletcher, in a most graphic way

At the business session it was voted to donate a book to the Public Library instead of bringing a Christmas gift to the Christmas party.

The Humble home featured decorations in keeping with the holiday season. Delicious refreshments of cake and coffee were served by the hostess assisted by Mr. Marlin Harris.

Thirteen true-bills for both the payment and the receiving of bribes, for prostitution and for transporting of males to known bawdy houses, known to the carrier to be for illegal purposes, and one for theft were returned by the November session of the Milam County Grand Jury at 11:50 a.m. Friday Dec. 30. Eight were felony counts and five misdemeanors.

Bruce Holland. "A duly qualified deputy City Marshall of the City of Cameron." came in for six felony counts for accepting bribes of $3 and $2.50 from people allegedly engaged in the business of prostitution either directly or in "Aiding assisting or transporting of males to visit a known bawdy house, and knowing the purpose for which he is thus transported."

Lonnie Armstrong, owner and operator of a taxi service in Cameron was indicted on two counts. A felony charge was for allegedly paying bribe money in the amount of $10 to Bruce Holland on June 6 in return for immunity from arrest for the illegal transporting. Armstrong's misdemeanor charge was for illegal transporting.

Annie Mitchell was true billed for keeping a disorderly house. "Where women met males by mutual appointment made by another person." True bills for vagrancy and prostitution were against Ruby Johnson, Ruth Johnson and Queen Esther Brown.

In another case Shedrick McDaniel was billed for theft of one white-face yearling heifer: declared to be the property of Charlie Mae McDaniel.

The bribery case opened when a complainant came to Sheriff Black stating that he had been mauled by an officer, when he refused to stay away from a given address as reportedly demanded by the officer.

By Saturday morning each of the principals in the felony charges had posted $1,000 bond in each charge.

Cotton Allotment Pooling Urged; Releasing Farm Retains History

..This is a provision provided for in the Marketing Quota Law where by farmers can work together to help themselves, thereby minimizing the number of acres which can be lost through lack of county history. Actually, the farm releasing the acreage benefits as much, if not more, than anyone else because the crop history is given to the farm which releases the acreage and not the receiving farm. History, of course, is a determining factor of farm as well as county allotments. When allotted farm acreage is not planted nor released, not only does this hurt the farm but the county as well.

Release acreage is pooled and reallocated by the county ASC Committee to other farms within the county, based on written ruests filed by producers on such farms. The receiving farm, while it received no history credit for reallocated acres, does benefit of the production from such acres and each year many hardships are lessened through this medium

..All of the release acreage is reallocated right in the county which is an economic factor to be considered. It is a case of farmers mutually working together to help one another.

If you happen to know that you will not plant your 1956 cotton allotment, the sooner it is released, the better possibility there is of getting the acreage reallocated in a manner to insure maximum use and utilization.

It is realized that weather conditions largely govern and determine the final plans even on farms anticipating releasing their allotments. But whenever final cropping plans are made, if cotton doesn't fit in for 1956; and you have some cotton for 1956, be sure and officially release it back to the county ASC office as soon as possible.

Rippy Report On Education Warns Of Federal Control

A report on the recent White House Conference on Education is being featured in the January issue of East Texas magazine, official publication of the East Texas Chamber of Commerce.

Author of the special article is Dr. Edwin L. Rippy, president of the Board of Education of the Dallas Independant School District and chairman for the Texas White House Conference. He presents a report on the Washington meeting and an analysis of current educational problems in Texas.

Referring to the White House Conference on Education. Dr. Rippy writes: "Out of this Conference I fear there shall come a recommendation that the federal government enter into the financing of our school systems. This will mean eventually strong federal control over education.

The article warns that it is unsound and dangerous to the future security of his country to center control of the education of youth in any one central agency.

"It is to be hoped that Texas will hold out with all the fortitude at its command against this inevitable insult to free education," Dr. Rippy's article will be distributed this week throughout the 72-county area included in he regional chamber.

Taxpayers Offered Form Assist At Temple Revenue Office

Assistance to taxpayers in the Temple area will be given each Monday from 8:15 to 12:00 noon beginning Jan. 9 it was announced by H. W. Ewing of the Internal Revenue Service office in Temple Texas.

The "do-it-yourself" program of group assistance which was so successful last filing period will be continued and improved, Mr. Ewing said. Taxpayers will be assembled into groups, furnished forms, and encouraged to prepare their own returns with assistance from Internal Revenue employees

"The majority of taxpayers found that preparing their own returns was not a difficult task More than ever before, taxpayers read ther instruction booklets filled out their forms without help. Once a taxpayer relieves himself of the mental hazard an sets himself to the task of preparing his return, he is amazed at the result and takes pride in his accomplishment," Mr. Ewing pointed out.

"While going to a Revenue Service office will not speed a refund nor eliminate a future audit, the Revenue Service will furnish any information needed to prepare a return. The group method is an educational program to help taxpayers understand their own tax affairs. Forms will be prepared only for persons physically or mentally unable to prepare their own. Taxpayers with business-type return or with complicated problems should seek professional tax assistance.

There are approximately six hold-outs on granting of right of way to the City for construction of highway 36. A committee composed of Aldermen Roy Griffith, Robert Weems and Grady Stidham were appointed by the Mayor Tuesday night to push toward a final conclusion the obtaining of compromise agreements from these parties. Suggestions of condemnation proceedings were tabled until a report is in from the clean-up committee.

The Police Committee composed of councilmen Griffith, Schiller and Thompson recommended that Deputy City Marshall Bruce Holland be suspended from service of the City until the outcome of the indictment of the Grand Jury is ascertained. Holland was asked to "lay-off" Saturday night by Marshal Joe Richter until the Council met tonight. The Council action merely confirms the "lay off" of the Marshal and makes it a suspension for the duration of charges against the deputy. Lee Fuller, who has been substituting for the deputy is taking over full time until someone is chosen to take up the duties. Fuller prefers the status of "extra."

The intersection of Houston and First Streets was voted to be a 4-way stop with signs being placed on the curbs rather than in the center of the street as is in common use at this time.

The status of Wilma Holloway, assistant to the City Secretary, to be permanent at a salary of $140 per month was voted on motion of Alderman Griffith.

Attorney Jack Prescott was a visitor at council meeting and became interested when the general discussion was on the subject of

Dodge presents..."The TEXAN"

Choice of this dashing Lancer Hardtop or the big, rangy 4-Door Sedan

The Texan by Dodge!

A handsome, rugged car big as all outdoors, with the surging power of a quarter horse, sweeping lines of a gull in flight, the relaxed touch of push-button driving!

The Texan is built for Texas driving. It skims swiftly along the big broad highways, it rips over hills like a hungry cougar, it takes the bumpiest, ruttiest, sandiest road and comes back for more. Powered by the mighty engine that busted the AAA record book wide open at Bonneville Salt Flats, it gives you the same superior engineering and design that made Dodge the greatest sales-gainer in the industry in 1955.

Plenty of special features, too . . . specially designed interior trim, special paint combinations, jaunty twin exhaust pipes, and other smart touches. The Texan's name is proudly blazoned on both rear fenders. And the brave crossed flags of the Lone Star State are right up front where your fellow-Texans can admire them!

Best of all, the Texan is priced right down with the so-called "low-priced three." Yet it's big and powerful and luxurious . . . rivaling cars costing as much as a thousand dollars more! Visit your nearest Dodge Dealer now and drive the Texan!

FRED G. GURLEY

Railroader Chosen Man Of The Month

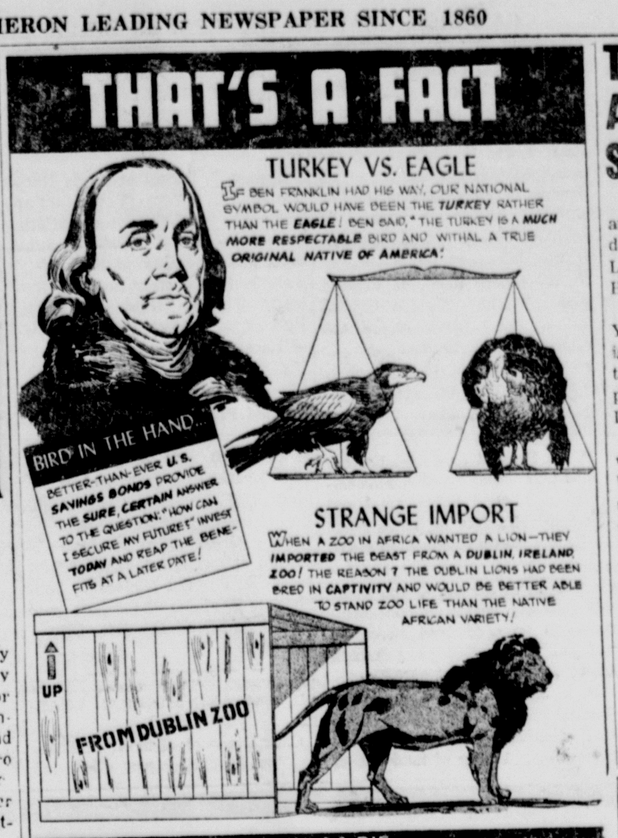

The selection of Fred G. Gurley president of the Santa Fe Railway Lines, as Man of the Month for January by the East Texas Chamber of Commerce for varied and consistent contributions to the progress of the region was announced today by the regional chamber president Charles F. Hawn of Athens.

It is the first time in the history of the 7-county regional chamber that his distinction has been awarded anyone oher than a Texan.

Gurley's active personal interest coupled with that of the Santa Fe in the growth and development of East Texas topped by the recent construction of a new main line serving Dallas-Denton-Chicago and intermediate points was the basis for the honor, Hawn said.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Roberts of Vernon spent the Christmas holidays in California with their sons Lynn and Harold Roberts who are there in the Navy. The boys are the grandsons of Mr. and Mrs J. D. Turney and Mrs. Luther Roberts.

A War Of "Bugs"

Even the healthiest person among us could be harboring germs that, under certain conditions, produce such dreaded diseases as tuberculosis, polio and influenza. They are carried to us in the air we breathe, the food we eat, and on the things we touch. Yet we may remain healthy and unaware most of the time of this invisible world of germs that lurks both within and outside our bodies.

This paradoxical situation results from the interplay of countless factors that stand in the way of a germ's development and survival.

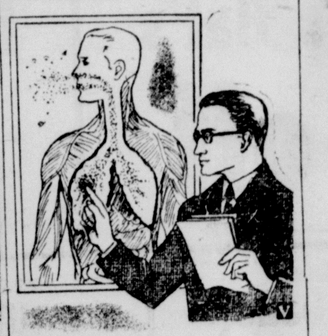

The great scientist Metchnikoff once observed that germs multiply so rapidly that, if provided with a favorable environment and adequate protection, they could soon destroy mankind and envelop the earth.

Scientists have discovered that one of the most effective barriers against the spread of deadly germs are other microorganisms. For while some of these minute agents seem bent on destroying human, plant and animal life, others protect and help us.

We now know, for instance, there are germs that actually prey on a variety of disease-causing agents. Such "cannibal" germs are called bacteriophages, which means "devourers of bacteria."

Other microorganisms have a more subtle but equally effective means of disposing of dangerous bacteria: they "manufacture" chemicals called antibiotics which are effective against a variety of deadly germs. The antibiotic tetracycline, for instance, is produced by Streptomyces, which are tiny mold microorganisms. Tests have shown that this drug, which is also known as Polycycline, repels germs responsible for scores of diseases which range from pneumonia to dysentery.

The process by which antibiotics are produced, in effect, reverses Metchnikoff's observation on the ability of germs under proper environment to multiply so rapidly as to destroy mankind. The Streptomyces organism which produces the germ-fighting Polycycline, is given the perfect environment in which to multiply at the greatest possible rate. The fermentation tanks where the antibiotic is produced are made sterile so the Streptomyces will have no competition from other organisms and can grow in complete freedom. The temperature, pressure, moisture and food on which the productive little organism thrives best are then regulated under the most careful controls.

By thus studying the needs of "friendly" organisms which can be used to fight harmful ones, and then providing these needs under laboratory conditions, scientists are learning to tilt the balance of power in favor of the microscopic agents that help us eradicate disease.

This new Buick SPECIAL 2-Door 6-Passenger Sedan delivers locally for less than some models of the well-known smaller cars. Come in and check!

IF YOU think you can't afford a big-bodied, big-powered, big-muscled Buick like the one shown here—we'd like to set the matter straight.

If you can afford any new car, you can afford this strapping and stunning Buick SPECIAL Sedan—and no kidding.

For this Buick is tagged within a few dollars of the well-known smaller cars—and actually costs less than some models of those very same cars. The price we show here proves it.

So maybe you can understand why Buick—for two years running now—has outsold every other car in the land, except two of those well-known smaller cars.

But low price is just part of the picture.

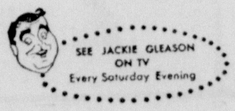

Big reason for Buick's soaring sales sweep is that folks are finding here a lot more automobile for the money—more style boldness, more power thrill, more ride stability and more solid structure than the same dollars buy elsewhere.

Just ask yourself: wouldn't you rather go traveling with the lift and life and pace and poise of a stunning new Buick—when it's all yours at just about the price of a smaller car?

If your answer is yes, then the time is now—right now.

Drop in on us this very week—tomorrow would be fine—and we'll seat you at the wheel of the biggest and most beautiful bundle of high-powered Buick ever offered in America's low-price field.

John Polansky Retired By Lone Star Still Works

John Frank Polansky of Cameron probably won't notice too much difference inhis daily routine in 1956, except that he will be his own boss.

Although he retired under Lone Star Gas Company's pension plan December 30, Frank plans to continue handling sheet metal installments for the Company on a contract basis.

"I'll still get to work for Mr. Burke," says Frank of C. M. Burke, Cameron District manager whom he admires as a "real fine fellow."

The admiration is mutual.

"He's one of the finest sheet metal workmen I've ever seen," says Burke, who with other employees in Cameron dedicated the fall range campaign to Frank Polansky.

Like many families of European descent, Frank Polansky and his six brothers learned thier trade from their father who learned it in Austria from his father. Robert F. Polansky came to America in 1879 and settled in Fayettville, Texas. As his boys grew up (there were also four girls) each took his place at his father's side at the age of 16.

"Poppa made us work for our board until we were 21 and could earn a man's wages."

Frank says he learned a lot from Lone Star engineers he has worked with.

He in turn has taught his fine craftsmanship to other younger men whom he has trained in Cameron.

Frank, who is a member of the American Legion Post 9, helped to organize two other posts, one at Lyons and one at Post. He also served as commander of each of these which were later consolidated.

An avid TV fan, he also enjoys bowling and entertaining his 15-month old granddaughter, Mary Beth Brock.

Mrs. Polansky who was featured in the November Blue Blaze on her trip to Calif. by motorcycle with their son, Lee, is the former Mary Ann Vykaykal who was born at Trenstat, Texas. The couple's daughter, Mrs. James Brock, lives in Cameron. Lee is studing for the priesthood at St. Mary's in Houston.

Jan. 16 Deadlines Payments For Quarterly Taxpayer

Taxpayers making quarterly installments on individual estimated income tax should mark Jan. 16 in their date book.

This, according to Mr. H. W. Ewing of the Temple office of the Revenue Service is the deadline for paying the final installment on 1855 estimated tax. January 16 is also the last day to amend a prior declaration of estimated tax return to avoid possible penalties for underestimation.

Navy WAVES omprised 55 percent of the military personnel in the Navy Department in Washington, D. C. during World War II.

That's why 666 is unsurpassed in effectiveness. Try it.

LITTLE RIVER PHILOSOPHER WANTS SCIENCE TO DROP HYBRID CROPS AND DEVELOPE A HYBRID DOLLAR

Editor's note: The Little River Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on The Little River has an odd idea to start the new year off with, his letter this week reveals.

Dear editar:

As far as I'm concerned, the new year has already started off wrong.

The very first newspaper that showed up out here on my farm had an article in it that up set me

According to it a scientist has been given a medal and $500 for developing a rust resistant wheat.

Now you ordinarily would not think there was a thing wrong with this, a wheat farmer plants a lot of the stuff, it comes up, looks like it's gonna make a good crop, then it begins rusting and his crop turns up short or a complete failure.

But if there's anything this country needs now it's less wheat, try needs now it's less wheat, not more, unless we want to build more warehouses and even idle ships to hold it in.

What we really need is a new-type wheat that will expire after two years, like photographic film. If it's not used in two years after it's harvested, it'll crumble apart

They're giving the prize for the wrong thing these days. They've developed for example a storm-proof cotton, but what the cotton industry needs is more cotton that will blow away the first time a light wind comes up, covered by insurance, of course.

They've already developed hybrid corn, making two ears grow where one grew before, but they have neglected to develop a hybrid dollar, and as a result, while one bushel of corn used to bring two dollars, it now brings one.

Also, they're now working on hybrid maize, and the results will be the same, two hundred pounds produced where one hundred used to be the average, with the price being cut in half.

Some people may conster this progress, but until they develop a hybrid dollar to double as fast as production of crops, they ought to soft-peddle those new discoveries. They're giving the prizes to the wrong men.

What science ought to be turning its mind to is the development of perishable wheat, cotton, corn, maize, rice, etc., or else get to work on a hybrid dollar.

Yours faithfully,

J. A.

Wilson Renamed Noble Grand Of I.O.O.F. Lodge

The Odd Fellows Lodge No. 56 of Cameron elected new officers recently.

Bassel Wilson was re-elected Noble Grand, Joe Bass treasurer, H. B. McClellen Secretary and Glenn Roland Vice Grand. Albert Edmonds was elected delegate to the National Convention with Bassell Wilson as alternate.

All other officers will be appointed by the Noble Grand and the Vice Grand very soon.

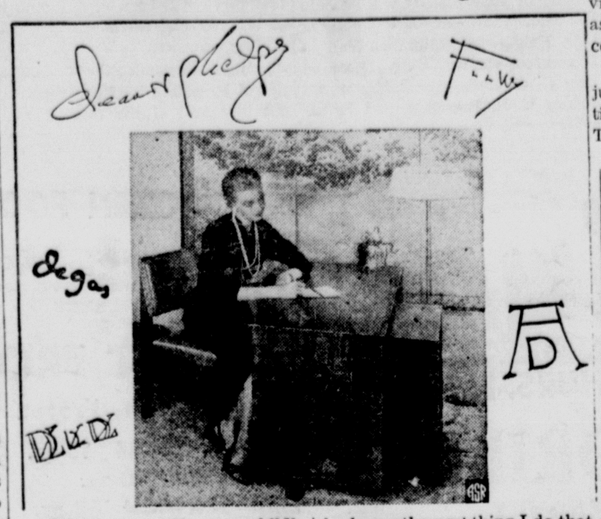

The principles of Friendship, Love and Truth are the foundation of the one-hundred year old organization which is housed in its own building located just north of the Post office in Cameron.

Several other lodges and one church and other civic organizations meet in the building.

The I.O.O.F. owns and operates an orphanage at Corsicana and a home for the aged at Ennis.

Soil is our greatest natural resource—save it.

Men of Genius Often Have Odd Handwriting

Don't worry if your child's handwriting looks like something from outer space. He may be a genius. Of course, there is no proof either way, but you might as well take the happier viewpoint.

It generally is admitted today that one of the greatest creative geniuses of all times is Leonardo da Vinci who lived 1452-1519. Leonardo da Vinci's stupendous notebooks, even today a guide book for painters, sculptors and designers, were written in such atrocious handwriting that it took real experts to decipher his writing.

To take an entirely contemporary example, Frank Lloyd Wright admittedly is the foremost achitectural pioneer of this age. Not only has he done an amazing job of designing hotels, buildings and particularly homes, but at the age of 86 he has launched upon a new career: furniture designing for Heritage Henredon. Now, most people of 86 devote considerable attention to their burial arrangements and whether their life insurance policies are in good effect, but Mr. Wright thinks emphatically in terms of the future and making life better and more liveable for people here. Asked recently which piece of his furniture he liked best, Mr. Wright replied: "Why, the next piece I shall design. It is always the next thing I do that counts with me." His famous initialed signature is reproduced with this story, and centered is a photograph of one of his challenging and creative new pieces of furniture.

A glamorous and brilliant present-day example is Eleanor Phelps, who was a noted Shakespearian actress playing opposite Maurice Evans with rare power at an age when most theater hopefuls still were in the summer stock stage. Now known especially for television and radio roles which she handles with much authority, Miss Phelps has a striking, slashing signature. It will be on the front cover of a book of poems soon to appear on the bookstands, and it appears here.

Albrecht Dürer, who lived 1471-1528 did many outstanding things, among them a woodcutting of "Saint Michael Slaying The Dragon," which now is the property of the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York City. He helps out greatly by simply using his two initials with one super-imposed over the other, so that you get a very clear "AD". His "Mass of St. Gregory" is especially famous and here too he uses his signature of the super-imposed initials.

Safe Driving Tips For New Year Are Offered By Expert

"Steer yourself on the road to safety in 1956".

That is the advice of Danny Eames, chief test driver for Dodge, who suggests that motorists adopt New Year's resolutions governing their "behind the wheel" conduct.

Said Eames, "People joke about New Year's resolutions. "However," he continued, "safety is a serious business. If each driver would resolve to observe traffic rules every day of the year the highway accident toll would be greatly reduced in 1956."

Here are ten resolutions Eames recommends for motoring safety during the New Year:

1. Observe all traffic regulations. They're designed for your ce behind the car ahead, particu- protection. 2. Keep a safe distan- larly at higher speeds. 3. Stay in your own lane on hills, curves and in "no passing" zones. 4. Dim your lights to oncoming traffic, when driving at night. 5. Give the right of way to pedestrains. 6. Always be on the alert for children. 7. Know the proper hand or direction signals and use them. 8. Watch where you're going, and keep an eye on other cars near you. 9. Regulate speed to road conditions as well as to posted speed limits. 10. Give the other fellow more than his share of the road.

Disaster Losses Deductible

Thousands of taxpayers who suffered financially from hurricane, floods, and other disasters of 1955 will get a helping hand from the Internal Revenue Service in information intended to assist them in preparing their income tax returns for the year.

The tax collection agency has just published a new booklet entitled "How the Federal Income Tax Applies to Losses from Hurricanes, Floods, and Other Disasters."

"What is home without a mother?" quoth the good-looking young man.

"Well," replied the sweet young thing, "I am, tonight."

When our soils are gone we too go unless we find some way to feed on raw rock or its equivalent.

MRS. Homemaker's FORUM by LOU PAYNE

You'll be surprised at the work you can save—time and money, too—by following hose household hints:

• • • •

To remove mildew from clothes, wash the garment with detergent, moisten the stained area with lemon juice and salt, then dry in the sun. If the stain is old, bleach it with peroxide and rinse well.

• • • •

Save your Christmas cards this year. Cut out the pictures and use them to decorate gift packages. This makes prettier packages than any seals or decorations you can buy.

• • • •

Before cleaning your dog, cut four inch squares of flannel, fold, then place in a quart jar. Pour one pint of water and two tablespoons of Pine-Sol into the jar and shake well. Using the flannel to clean the dog will not only keep him clean, but take away dog odor and discourage fleas.

• • • •

Plastic bags that come with vegetables can be put to many uses. Slip one of these bags over the end of a hammer—and you have a steak pounder

• • • •

When storing blankets, wrap them in paper or plastic and seal securely against dust. Place on top of any pile on the shelf to prevent crushing.

• • • •

You can get sticky starch off the bottom of your iron by ironing over a piece of brown paper on which a little salt has been sprinkled.

Eat, drink and be merry for tomorrow ye may diet.

It looks high priced

...but it's the '56 Chevrolet!

THE NEW BEL AIR SPORT COUPE

Who wouldn't mistake this new Chevrolet for a high-priced car!

It looks strictly "upper bracket" with its bold new Motoramic styling . . . its longer, lower hood . . . its proud new full-width grille.

But, even beyond the costly appearance of its beautiful Body by Fisher, Chevy gives the high-priced cars a run for their money. It brings you lightning acceleration for safer passing. Horsepower ranges up to 205! All engines now have hydraulic-hushed valve lifters.

Besides, you get safety door latches in all models. You can also have seat belts, with or without shoulder harness, and instrument panel padding at extra cost.

Yarborough Pleas For Grand Jury Trust Case Action

Ralph W. Yarborough has made the following statement regarding the U.S. Trust and Guaranty insolvency case:

"I repeat my earlier call for grand jury investigations of the U.S. Trust and Guaranty Company case.

"It is apparent that the present state administration and particularly he Insurance Commission is not going to clean up anything.

"The people of Texas are enitled to protection from the gross breaches of public trust involved in this case.

"Nothing but grand juries can stop this defrauding of the public. I call upon the district attorneys and the grand juries of Texas to begin investigations of U.S. Trust and Guaranty at once. They are the traditional governmental bodies with the will to protect the public from briberty and graf.

"Sound insurance is a foundation stone of the free enterprise system and crooked public officials who are eating away public confidence in the Texas insurance industry are weakening our entire business and economic structure.

"I demand an immediate clean up of the insurance mess so that the foundations of our economy may be kept strong.

"Texascries out for grand jury action now. This is no time to let the whitewash brigade march agin.

"There goes a woman I've loved for 20 years."

"How come you didn't marry her, Doctor?"

"Couldn't afford to. She's my best patient."

Angina—The "Coronary's" Cousin

In recent months, particularly in the United States, much attention has been focused on heart and arterial diseases. Uppermost in everyone's mind has been the disorder called coronary thrombosis in which a blood clot stops passage of blood through one of the coronary arteries that supply the heart muscle with blood.

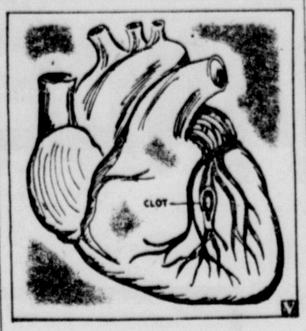

Angina pectoris, a related disorder, is not caused by a clot, but by a narrowing of the coronary arteries. This also cuts down the flow of nourishing blood to the heart muscle itself and causes severe pain in the chest, much like that experienced during a coronary attack.

Anginal attacks can be brought on by strenuous exertion or emotional upsets. While rest or drugs can usually relieve anginal pain, rest alone does not appreciably lessen pain caused by coronary thrombosis.

In angina pectoris, the heart behaves like an auto with a pinched feed line. When the car is parked at the curb, the motor idles smoothly; when the same auto tries to climb a hill, the motor backfires and protests. So it is with the heart of the anginal patient; under no pressure, it functions satisfactorily, but if the patient runs upstairs, walks briskly, or, perhaps, even watches an exciting event, the result may well be a painful attack.

A serious consideration in angina pectoris is that it may be the forerunner of thrombosis. Constriction of an artery may enable a clot to form in the narrowest part. When the clot plugs the artery and stops the flow of blood, coronary thrombosis is established. The section of the heart muscle fed by the artery "starves" to death from lack of nourishment, then disintegrates, and, eventually, in the usual case, is replaced by inactive scar tissue.

"Angina pectoris," according to Dr. Henry I. Russek, noted heart specialist of New York, "is really a first cousin to coronary thrombosis. But the patient with angina pectoris can do much to control it, and to forestall the complication of coronary thrombosis. He should avoid hurry, worry, excitement, overexertion, overweight, overeating and smoking."

Nitroglycerine, the explosive, is the most effective drug in relieving acute attacks of angina pectoris according to Dr. Russek. It causes the coronary arteries to dilate permitting blood to flow freely. It acts within seconds, but provides relief for only 15 minutes to a half hour.

For longer lasting relief, Dr Russek uses a "cousin" of nitroglycerine called Peritrate. His investigation of this drug has shown that its protection against attacks lasts from four to five hours.

In one series of clinical tests conducted with colleagues at the Public Health Service Hospital Staten Island, N. Y., Dr. Russek tested 13 new drugs, plus the old drugs, alcohol and morphine, in a group of 60 patients, using electrocardiograms to check drug effects.

Their conclusions: Whiskey though long a popular "medicine" acts only as a sedative and hides the disorder by masking the pain. Morphine, too, is only a masking pain-killer. Of the 13 new drugs only Peritrate was as effective in its long-lasting relief as nitroglycerine is in its immediate action it was the only drug that provided four hours or more of protection against recurrent attacks.

PEPPER-PORK IN A RICE RING

1½ pounds lean pork
1 clove garlic, minced
2 tablespoons salad oil
1 pound green peppers
1½ cups beef broth
1¼ teaspoons salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
¼ teaspoon monosodium glutamate
1 tablespoon sugar
¼ cup cornstarch
¼ teaspoon soy sauce
¼ cup cold water
3 cups hot cooked rice

Remove bone and excess fat from meat. Cut into thin strips about 3 inches long.

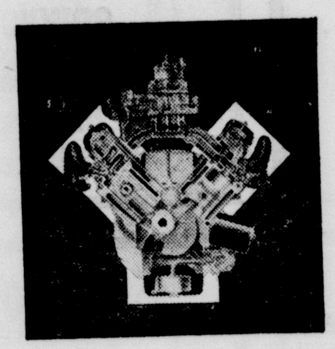

Brown pork and garlic in heated salad oil in large skillet.

Wash peppers and remove seeds. Cut into 1-inch squares. Add to meat together with beef broth, salt, pepper, monosodium glutamate, and sugar. Bring to a boil; lower heat. Cover and simmer 8 to 10 minutes, or until peppers are tender but not soft.

Make a smooth paste of cornstarch, soy sauce, and water. Add to meat mixture and cook until thickened and clear.

Serve with the hot fluffy rice. Yields six servings.
